

EDUtalk.cc

Educational Audio and the Home of Radio #EDUtalk

Over 2100 pieces of Educational Audio

EDUtalk is an 'open to all contributions' podcast.

Running since 2009, there are now over 2100 audio files on the site. More are added every week.

EDUtalk encourages people, to talk about education using mobile and web technologies.

It is simple to post to EDUtalk from mobile devices.

Audio files can be emailed. Audio recordings using Audioboom on the Web can be tagged 'edutalk' and will be picked up and posted here automatically.

EDUtalk is open to contributions from anyone on any aspect of education. Just tag an Audoboom #edutalk or send via email to audio@edutalk.cc broadcasts live once or twice a week and streams archive 24/7.

Radio #EDUtalk, an Internet Radio Station

The station also broadcasts from educational conferences, TeachMeets and other live events.

@edutalkr

#edutalk

If you are interested in being a guest on a live show, suggesting someone else, or want a show of your own, please get in touch, via twitter or email:

David Noble edutalkr@hotmail.co.uk

John Johnston johnjhonston@mac.com

What people say about #EDUtalk

“One of the most innovative, interactive professional learning resources in Scottish education” - GTC Teaching Scotland

“If possible, I like to listen live. It’s a great and easy way to feel in touch with areas of education outwith my normal sphere.” - Caroline Breyley headteacher on Shetland

“Excellent, specialised, focused discussions, where you get to tweet questions and get live answers.”

“I listen to learn. I have shared brief notes/synopsis with colleagues and provided them with links.”
Highlands Teacher, Barbara van der Meulen

The channel's recipe for success lies in the fact that Radio Edutalk is interactive, high quality, free and, most importantly, easy to use. It is accessible anytime, anywhere on mobile, tablet or PC. Shows are highly engaging: you can relax, listen-in, take notes and, if you pose a question, you will receive a live answer. A comprehensive archive gives busy teachers and occasional listeners the opportunity to 'catch-up' at their leisure
GTC - Teaching Scotland

Some Example #EDUtalk Content

Live Evening Broadcasts Broadcasts

Radio Edutalk 10-02-2016: Kenny McGhee, Throughcare & Aftercare Service Lead at CELCIS, on Scottish Care Leavers Covenant and Staying Put Scotland Guidance

Leave a reply..

Keynote on Edutalk: Gerd Leonhard – The future of knowledge, learning, and work

Leave a reply..

Radio #EDUtalk Ania Rolinska, Bill Guariento and Nazmi Al-Masri – EAST Project – engineering students collaborating across borders Gaza to Glasgow

Leave a reply..

Radio Edutalk 16-02-2016: Elinor Vettraino, DEd Psychology student at University of Dundee, 'Exploring the 6-Part Story Method as a vehicle for embodied reflexivity with youth'

Leave a reply..

Submitted by AudiBoom

366Web2: Parli-N-Gram

Do teachers suffer cultural isolation?

Live from Conferences and Events

Radio #EDUtalk 28-8-2013 eAssessment Scotland: Catherine Cronin

Tim Flood Draw What You See #ScotFLF15

Tim Flood Draw What You See

Tim Flood has a degree in film making and trained at the BBC. He became a primary school teacher and for the past 12 years has managed Floodfilm – a Moving Image Education Consultancy. He set up Moving Picts, a community film collective in Moray and loves drawing storyboards.

Presentations from TeachMeet Languages Glasgow

Download TeachMeet Languages Glasgow

TeachMeet Languages Glasgow (#TMLangsGlas13) was held on Friday 1st November 2013 in the Confucius Classroom at the University of Strathclyde.

The event was generously sponsored by SALT, Scottish Association of Language Teaching and the presentations will be available for download from the website, www.saltlang.org.uk.

EDUtalk by EDUtalk community is licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution-Non-Commercial-Share Alike 2.5 UK: Scotland License